WORLD PROPERTIES.com

News you can use...
ICREA Newsletter

November 2012 - #1

Dear Kate,

Rising prices, tougher lending rules and ongoing crisis actually means good news for many in the industry. Read these stories and other industry news from around the globe in this issue of News You Can Use or view a complete list of news postings at WorldProperties.com.

Register today for ICREA's online Transnational Referral Certified course (TRC) at WorldProperties.com. TRCs receive a special discount off the Premium agent package at WorldProperties.com. Learn more...

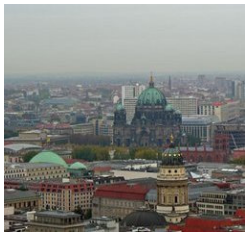
News from ICREA

UK buyers face toughened lending rules

The new rules will help to ensure borrowers take on only loans they can afford and to prevent a return to irresponsible lending practices.
Read more>

US home prices continue to rise

Nineteen of the 20 cities measured posted positive monthly gains in August with average home prices being back to summer/autumn 2003 levels.
Read more>



Eurozone crisis is good for Berlin housing market

German buyers are competing with investors from elsewhere in Europe who see Germany as one of the strongest markets in the region.
Read more>

AMPI Congress attendance reflects robust economy

The 2012 AMPI Congress drew nearly double number of 2011, reflecting the country's healthy market. Some predict that Mexico will overtake Brazil as Latin America's biggest economy.
Read more>

Renting grows in popularity in Poland; landlords face problems

Landlords are facing problems protecting their interests against defaulting tenants in light of strict legal code regarding eviction.
Read more>

Industry Events

2013 is Just around the Corner!

Promote your association events to the world. Send us the dates of 2013 association conventions and expositions to add to the WorldProperties Industry Events calendar.
Email editor>

FNAIM 66th Congress and 6th International Convention

FNAIM holds its 66th annual Congress in Paris, where "Europe Meets the World," in conjunction with its 6th International Convention & European Forum, December 10-11. Special invitation for international attendees.
Read more>

ICREA Events Calendar at WorldProperties.com

See the full list of upcoming global industry events as well as events sponsored by individual ICREA member organizations.
See all Events>