WORLD PROPERTIES.com

News you can use...
ICREA Newsletter

October 2012 - #2

Dear Kate,

There's lots of good news on home sales coming out of the the Americas this month--from North to South! Read the latest from the US, Canada and Brazil along with other industry news from around the globe in this issue of News You Can Use or view a complete list of news postings at WorldProperties.com.

Register today for ICREA's online Transnational Referral Certified course (TRC) at WorldProperties.com. TRCs receive a special discount off the Premium agent package at WorldProperties.com. Learn more...

News from ICREA

US foreclosure activity hits five-year low

The report counters expectations that foreclosures would increase following a mortgage servicing settlement earlier this year between lenders and government officials.
Read more>

Canada sees first increase in home sales since spring

Home sales rose 2.5% in September, marking the first monthly gain since March and a partial recovery from the 6.2% drop in August in the wake of new mortgage rules.
Read more>

Sales of new homes in São Paulo sets record high

August saw an increase of 10.5% in sales of new units compared with July, and an associated increase of 14.9% in the value of properties traded for this same period.
Read more>

Dutch brokers study in Rome

"Old versus New" was the theme of the tour which included visits to new construction sites and existing properties.
Read more>

Miami association offers US foreign investment education

A special international program will provide an overview of factors to consider when investing in the US and in Florida.
Read more>

Industry Events

2013 is Just around the Corner!

Promote your association events to the world. Send us the dates of 2013 association conventions and expositions to add to the WorldProperties Industry Events calendar.
Email editor>

XLI AMPI Congress (Mexico)

"The Power of Success" is the theme for the 2012 AMPI Congress to be held in Guadalajara November 1 - 3. AMPI certification courses and business meetings will be held Oct. 29 -31. Conference registration and opening session on Nov. 1.
Read more>

MIAMI International Congress

The MIAMI Realtors® (Florida) welcomes 300+ US and international real estate professionals to Miami Nov. 4-6, for its international congress. A special program for international investors is offered Nov. 1-2 (see news item above).
Read more>

FNAIM 66th Congress and 6th International Convention

FNAIM holds its 66th annual Congress in Paris, where "Europe Meets the World," in conjunction with its 6th International Convention & European Forum, December 10-11. Special invitation for international attendees.
Read more>

ICREA Events Calendar at WorldProperties.com

See the full list of upcoming global industry events as well as events sponsored by individual ICREA member organizations.
See all Events>